

Now The Rain Is Falling

Little Birdy

Wait, my open eyes are sorry now
You and me are in this together
I cry, I cry 'cause you're not here at all
I cannot be the only one

I am not last
I am not the only one Sorry
I thought you would grow
Everybody else needs somebody
I tune into love, then I see it all
Start to crumble
I needed your heart

Baby I want you painted on my skin
I understand what you've become
But with love and life and trust and happiness
You'd be a fool not to know that you'd be missed

I am not last
I am not the only one sorry
I thought you would grow
Everybody else needs somebody
I tune into love then I see it all
Start to crumble
I needed your heart for me, you

Now the rain is falling
Now the rain is falling
Now the rain is falling
Now the rain is falling

Wait, my open eyes are sorry now
You and me are in this together
I cry, I cry 'cause you're not here at all
I cannot be the only one
