

Only One

Little Dragon

Ooh, ooh, ooh
It was spring
That look, that look you gave
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Wrap it up far
Won't you let him slumber?
Whisper the name
Sunrise gone
If there's no tomorrow
Just wait all the same
Ooh, ooh, ooh
You've been gone
Been locked up
Should've wrote you long
Pitch black before they ask you for your last words
Softly spoken lines
You're mumbling and maybe she heard
Say it one more time
Not even a river on her cheek
She sat across the bar for weeks
Getting sober
Ooh, ooh, ooh
The world is numb
Ooh, ooh, ooh
And cruel for some
Ooh
The bubbles swing
And she brakes
The only one in her heart
Ooh

The girl, she jumped from the rooftop
And now had landed
Because you woke from your sleep
But you have the wings to be a soul
Another lullaby to sing now
There's a place far away that's better
You said, "I want us to go there"
She said, "I'll go as long as we stay together"
"Cause you're the only one"

Only one that's in my heart
Only one that's in my heart
Only one that's in my heart
Only one that's in my heart
Only one that's in my heart
Only one that's in my heart
Only one that's in my heart
Only one that's in my heart
Only one that's in my heart
Only one that's in my heart
Only one that's in my heart
Only one that's in my heart

Heart
Heart

Heart

Heart
Heart
