

Should I

Little Dragon

How many weeks since you were mine?
I stayed over all the time
If I was invited, I'd be there
But you're acting busy, why should I care?

Should I care?
Should I care?
Should I?

Blue, blue, it came, I watch your magic
People afraid of feeling tragic
If I was invited, I'd be yours
But you're high headed with all of your chores

Should I care?
Should I care?
Should I?

Touch me, touch me, I don't mind my
Glasses are dirty and on fire
Friends looking blurry over there
Then I feel, why do we, do we care?
I'll be your lover
I'll be your friend
Invite me in, invite me in

How many times I slip and bruise?
I'm out of bandaids 'cause of you
Just one crazy lover, babe
Now, there you go, why do I care?

Do I care?
Do I care?
Do I?
Should I?

Should I care?
Should I care?
Should I care?
