

Dixie Chicken

Little Feat

I've seen the bright lights of Memphis, and the Commodore Hotel and underneath the streetlamp, I met a southern belle Well she took me to the river, where she cast her spell and in that southern moonlight, she sang a song so well

CHORUS

If you'll be my dixie chicken, I'll be your Tennessee lamb and we can walk together down in Dixieland, down in Dixieland Well we made all the hotspots, my money flowed like wine and then that low-down southern whiskey, began to fog my mind and I don't remember church bells, or the money I put down on the white picket fence and boardwalk, of the house at the edge of town oh but boy do I remember, the strain of her refrain and the nights we spent together, and the way she'd call my name

CHORUS

Well it's been a year since you ran away, yes that guitar player should could play she always liked to sing along, she's always handy with a song and then one night in the lobby, yeah, of the Commodore Hotel I chanced to meet a bartender, who said he knew her well and as he handed me a drink, he began to hum a song and all the boys there at the bar, began to sing along
