

Ballerina

Little River Band

Dance on, ballerina
Dance the night away
Romance on, ballerina
Give yourself today

We are so far apart
At each end of the rainbow
But you've stolen my heart
Now I believe in tomorrow

Turn 'round, ballerina
Turn yourself to me
I learn now this ballerina
Holds the golden key

No, you're never alone
Got your heart in my pocket
As you're walking on home
Wear my face in your locket

I remember the day you caught my eye
I had nothing to say, I let you pass by
Like two ships in the night
Sailing blind 'cross the waterways

I remember the day you caught my eye
I had nothing to say, I let you pass by
Like two ships in the night
Sailing blind 'cross the waterways

Dance on, ballerina
Dance the night away
Romance on, ballerina
Give yourself today

Dance on, ballerina
