Just You And I

Little River Band

Heart of a dreamer but I do know right from wrong And you alone you keep me holdin' on I long for the moment restless and blue And no one ever filled my dreams like you

I will promise you my heart is yours alone And I'll give to you every night I own Baby, we've got what it takes Baby, we've got what it takes Just you and I

You fill me up when I burn deep inside A perfect spell, a dream we could not hide And no one around us could help but see You're the fire that lights the flame in me

I will promise you a world that's all our own And I'll give to you all the love I've known Baby, we've got what it takes Baby, we've got what it takes

Just you and I I've waited a lifetime Wondering why Searching for you Now I can see Forever's the right time For just you and I

I will promise you my heart is yours alone And I'll give to you every night I own Baby, we've got what it takes Baby, we've got what it takes Baby, we've got what it takes Just you and I

Got what it takes Just you and I Got what it takes

Yeah we've got what it takes Now I can see Got what it takes Just you and I
