Run to the Water

Oh desert speak to my heart Oh woman of the earth Maker of children who weep for love Maker of this birth 'Til your deepest secrets are known to me I will not be moved I will not be moved

"Don't try to find the answer When there ain't no question here Brother let your heart be wounded And give no mercy to your fear"

Adam and eve live down the street from me Babylon is every town It's as crazy as it's ever been Love's a stranger all around

In a moment we lost our minds here And lay our spirit down Today we lived a thousand years All we have is now

Run to the water And find me there Burnt to the core but not broken We'll cut through the madness Of these streets below the moon These streets below the moon

And I will never leave you 'Til we can say, "this world was just a dream We were sleepin' now we are awake" 'Til we can say

In a moment we lost our minds here And dreamt the world was round A million mile fall from grace Thank God we missed the ground

Run to the water And find me there Burnt to the core but not broken We'll cut through the madness Of these streets below the moon With a nuclear fire of love in our hearts

Yeah, I can see it now lord Out beyond all the breakin' of waves And the tribulation It's a place and the home of ascended souls Who swam out there in love!

Run to the water And find me there Burnt to the core but not broken We'll cut through the madness Of these streets below the moon With a nuclear fire of love in our hearts Rest easy baby, rest easy And recognize it all as light and rainbows Smashed to smithereens and be happy Run to the water (and find me there) Run to the water
