

We Open the Door

Live

We open the door
And as real as it seems
Are we really, really here?

If we are the eyes
We might as well stay closed
When we're only seeing the black and the white
The blood in the sky
Let's lift each other while we're still alive

Now, we do this right
Now, believe this right
Now, we start living our lives
Now...

We planted our seeds
Stacked our steel to the sky
Made 10 000 years of mistakes

Relying on gold
Our faith is all we had
And when I touch you here in this room
Feeling consumed
You rescue me and I'll rescue you

Now, we do this right
Now, believe this right
Now, we start living our lives
Now it ends tonight
Now, we'll make this right
Now while we're still alive
We won't lose this feeling that's burning inside

I won't leave you, I won't leave you
Here in this room
Feeling consumed
You rescue me and I'll rescue you

Now, we do this right
Now, believe this right
Now, we start living our lives
Now it ends tonight
Now, we'll make this right
Now while we're still alive
We won't lose this feeling that's burning inside

We give the sky, no longer blind
We don't need a reason, we don't need a number
We're already there, we're already there
This is where we'll keep it burning inside

Now, now, now

Now it ends tonight
Now, we'll make this right
Now, we start living our lives now
