

History Lesson

Living Colour

In Africa, music is not an art form as much as it is a means of communication.

A Negro has got no name

Quite often, the words of the song are meaningless.

A Negro has got no name

We are wearing the name of our master

etc. (much overlap and repetition)