Well like a descendant, I drifted far, far and wide Isolation, separation, no where to hide Maybe there's somewhere I can go Where there's sunshine and the wind won't blow

Nothingness

All I have to feel is my loneliness Nothing in the attic 'cept an empty chest And nothing lasts forever

Although there are many, I look for no one, no one but me I search for things that are taking me high and far out of reach

But this is the place I call my home
I live with the lies and the fear all alone

Nothingness

All I have to feel is my loneliness Nothing in the attic 'cept an empty chest And nothing lasts forever

Nothingness

All I have to feel is my lonliness Nothing in the attic 'cept an empty chest And nothing lasts forever

Nothingness
Loneliness
Empty chest
And nothing lasts forever
Nothing lasts forever
Nothing lasts forever
Nothing lasts forever
Nothing lasts forever
