Phargx Imas

Living Sacrifice

There is a voice that has gone forth Proclaiming "Vengeance it is mine" Prophetic truth sure to come In the fullness of this time Salvation produced the acquired Absence for who had the belief The unfortunate now remain In an endless search for relief The Lord's wisdom and his Strength they utterly forsake Insecurity of the darkness disaster will overtake Falling unexpectedly never to withhold Sudden Destruction, final separation Fall of the wicked foretold

Harvest of the earth now takes place Divine authority to remove the disgrace Permission given the sickle is swung Gathered together in the press they're slung With great wickedness the vats overflow Rising high, simulation of the flood Return to ruin valley of blood
