

The Reckoning

Living Sacrifice

Infamy - you lost your way again
This was the day, the day that you resigned
Infamy - this was not His design

I was yours, you were mine, cannot describe
I was yours, you were mine, this pain inside
Now I've turned to look - only a shadow remains
My land has been laid to waste
A drop of hope is all I taste
This is a reckoning of love The calculation of my heart
This is a reckoning of love The calculation of my death
No hope for return You have brought infamy
No hope for return Speaking grace solemnly

Depression - sets in
The serpent - stakes its claim
Losing faith - what it means to be alive
The shadows all around me dance for sorrow

I was yours, you were mine, cannot describe
I was yours, you were mine, this pain inside
Now I've turned to look - only a shadow remains
My land has been laid to waste A drop of hope is all I taste

This is a reckoning of love The calculation of my
heart
This is a reckoning of love The calculation of my
death
No hope for return You have brought infamy
No hope for return Speaking grace solemnly

This is a reckoning (reckoning) This is a reckoning
(reckoning)
This is a reckoning (reckoning) This is a reckoning
