

Pieces

Living With Lions

I'm broken again.
Shattered my consequence.
This shit is sinking fast.
We did everything to make it last.
We're dying.

(That night)
The world fell to pieces
(Undone)
The seam's were ripped and useless
(I'm falling)
Falling, I'm falling apart from you.

I stare out windows as another year goes by.
I watched us grow apart just like the tree in my front yard.
I watched us throw away opportunity,
Until this day came.
We're dying.

(That night)
The world fell to pieces
(Undone)
The seam's were ripped and useless
(I'm falling)
Falling, I'm falling apart
I'm falling apart from you

Piece by piece,
I'm falling apart from you
Trying to keep hold.
Piece by piece,
I'm breaking apart from you
It's time to let go.

I'm broken, I'm shattered.
We both lost sight in what we had.
The ties we shared
Have worn out thin, beyond repair.
We had the world in our hands,
Now I'm falling apart from you.

(That night)
The world fell to pieces
(Undone)
The seam's were ripped and useless
(I'm falling)
Falling, falling apart from you
