

Regret Song

Living With Lions

This is me letting go
It goes to show I hope you know
That I'm not mad,
Cause after all,
Everyone has to learn from their mistakes,
And you were just one of the many that I'll make.

I built you up so high,
Your head was in the clouds
Too bad you didn't look down
And no matter how much you claim
I mean to you as a friend or whatever I am to you
Sometimes you just fuck up and can't go back

You'll see this is the last song I'll write about you
Cause you're not worth the ink or time

I built you up so high,
Your head was in the clouds
Too bad you didn't look down
I built you up, you watch me fall
You said you regret this all
I regret this too,
I regret ever knowing you

I regret all those songs I wrote
And I regret never saying any of this to your face
Cause you were never worth all those songs I wrote
I regret everything you did, yeah

I built you up so high,
Your head was in the clouds
Too bad you didn't look down
I built you up, you watch me fall
You said you regret this all
I regret this too,
I regret ever knowing you
