

Whatever You Want

Living With Lions

Could I tell you everything, that makes me sick.
Your eyes tell me everything, I want to scream.
Maybe you should look past it all, watch me take the fall,
I'll make you proud I swear, I promise.

Whatever you want, you'll get what you want, whatever you want.
Survive just to stay alive and live for you.
I try to maintain my cool, I want to scream.

Maybe I should look past it all,
my wide eyes can see right through you.
Could I tell you everything, you need to know this.
Realize what you've done to me, you'll want to scream.

Maybe you should look past it all.
You should look past it all and maybe I should look past it all
Maybe I should look past it all
