

White Chocolate Space Egg

Liz Phair

Orange and blue, green and pink
I see you in everything...

Don't need money, don't need wine
I've got better ways to spend my time

I'll see you around, every hollow has its favorite sound
And my heart is holding on...

Purple, yellow, reddish brown
Once I felt you, I couldn't lay you down

Don't be shy, baby, don't be careful with me
Let it go, let it soak me down

Every rock and tree and leaf abound with your face
Your face, your face...

Trace...

Don't tell me I've been wrong...
Don't tell me all the magic's gone?

Every corner has its favorite clown
I'll see you
