

Moments Like This

Liza Minnelli

Moments like this make me thrill through and through
Precious moments like this spent with you
Nonchalantly we dine and we dance
Yet my heart seems to melt in your glance

Moments like this with the soft lights aglow
Make me long for your kiss though I know
I'd be just one of all your affairs
But at moments like this, who cares?

Moments like this with the soft lights aglow
Make me long for your kiss but I know
I'd be just one of all your affairs

But at moments like this
Moments like this
Moments like this, who cares?
Ha, who cares?
