Doing my thing, all day, yeah it's her

Who you know wit a flow so loco
On a dirty south track from the N.Y. though

Switch it up, hit it up, get it up, let it up
Your girl from the back, like giddy up
How come I run, you like my son, I blow the whole god damn city up
Inside that long white milky Bentley like I just picked Diddy up
Think about that while you doubt that, you a fake mac, you can't count that

Do my lean, big black truck
Coming through like I'm moving that stuff

Back to the tracks, back to the rhymes
