Forest Fire

Lloyd Cole

She crossed herself as she put on her things She has promised once before not to live this way If she don't calm down she will burn herself out Like a forest fire, well doesn't that make you smile

If you don't slow down, I swear that I'll come round And mess up your place, let's go for a spin They say we shouldn't even know each other And that we'll be undone Don't it make you smile like a forest fire

I believe in love, I'll believe in anything That's gonna get me what I want and get me off my knees Then we'll burn your house down, don't it feel so good There's a forest fire every time we get together

Hey pick you up, put you down Rip you up and spin you round Just like we said we would 'Cause we're a forest fire Believe you me, we'll tear this place down

If we get caught in this wind, then we could burn the ocean If we get caught in this scene, we're gonna be undone It's just a simple metaphor It's for a burning love Don't it make you smile like a forest fire
