And I
Can act like I don't see
Just who I want to be
But only for so long
And you
You can guess that I would know
Just where I wanna go
But I guess that you'd be wrong...
Why kill myself
To find out who I am?
When I really only want to be you...
Don't really see the harm
In lending me your charm
And it seemed to make you smile
But I could see how I could lose
Without the things you do
Not even for a while
Why kill myself
To find out who I am?
When I really only want to be you...
Why kill myself
To find out who I am?
When I really only want to be you...
