Hate Breeds Suffering

Lock Up

Torn down factories
Backdrop for forgotten times
The changing seasons
Progression in a wake of stones

Tear the thorn from our side Pull the nails from the wrists of decay Crown the poor man on the street Hate breeds suffering

The raging cold
Memories of the past collide
The vision stands
The touch of flesh and bone

Stare in to the face of unrest Blind within, hate breeds suffering Stare into the pain of promise Blind within, hate breeds suffering

This existence is a conflict within Our lives Sad reflections, grasp the concept Before we die

Hate breeds suffering Hate breeds suffering
