

Don't Make Me Wait

Locksley

one look was all it took and everything was said my darlin' one look was all it took and you were in my head my darlin' i stood like an open book waiting to be read my darlin'

it's something so surreal, the stupid way you make me feel when everything is said and done somehow you are still the one

don't make me wait so long to hesitate would be wrong

one day i think we may have settled down together baby one day i'll bet you'll say there is nothing better baby that day when you won't stay some day becomes never baby that day is far away so i won't think about the maybes

it's something so surreal, the stupid way you make me feel when everything is said and done somehow you are still the one

would you like a city by the sea then get a life with me don't think twice i think it would be nice a life of over-flattery

it's something so surreal, the stupid way you make me feel
