Live it up

You got to live your life Don't you know life is just too short Just gotta get up on your feet And party down Come on ! You got to live your life And live it up Come on and live your life And live it up You got to live your life And live it up Come on and live your life And live it up Life is too short to bring yourself down You've got to get up on your feet and let's party all around You got to live your life And live it up Come on and live your life And live it up You got, you got, you, you got You got, you got to live it up You got to live your life Don't you know life is just too short Just gotta get up on your feet And party down Come on !
