

Thin Lines

Logh

I got a suit
I got a black suit
You got horns but I got a black suit

I got a band
I got a black band
You got thorns and I got a black band

You got a shield
You got a black shield
I got a point but you got a black shield

I got a wish
I got a death wish
You got a badge but I got a death wish

The truth I know can not be bent, oh no
It has been raised as a monument to the dead
The truth they say is stated in the Book of Revelations
The truth I know is mounted on the bones of generations

I got a mark
I got a black mark
You got a book
At least you've got a book
