

Batte Forte

Lollipop

one year has passed and we is here,
Under the lighthouses of this reality',
Pursuing roads where who knows,
We will stop the time
Living true days
Dreaming as yesterday
Singing with this rhythm that goes
It beats strong inexorable
This love without limit
It won't pass' the desire that I have of you
Now that feel you
Histories that are crossed and we are here
From emotions and dreams without age'
Five years and' an indentita'
Always in movement
Living true days
Dreaming as yesterday
Bailando with this rhythm that goes
It beats strong inexorable
This love without limit
It won't pass' the desire that I have of you
Now that feel you
It burns strong inexorable
The passion among the tears
It will ascend' the desire that I have of you
Now that you inside
Free... soul... how much life that anchors will pass'
In this audacious reality'
It beats strong inexorable
This love without limit
It won't pass' the desire that I have of you
Now that feel you
(And' a destiny that traces on us)
It burns strong inexorable
The passion among the tears
It will ascend' the desire that I have of you
Now that you inside
It beats strong it beats strong
This love without limit
It won't pass' the desire that I have of you
Now that feel you
(And' a destiny that traces on us)
It burns strong it Beats strong
The passion among the tears
It will ascend' the desire that I have of you
Now that you inside.
