

Stop

Lollipop

You make up early you're still a sleep at 9
You don't feel like working i alone using your mind
He called you yesterday he could hurt you again
You don't have been called back it now gotta be ok

'Cause when you think the world's had
You gotta be strong and brave
You gotta stop the world and find yourself again

You gotta stop right now stop right now
Baby stop somehow' cause you're breaking down
Gotta stop right now stop right now
Baby stop somehow stop right now

Sometimes you feel like you're nothing in this world
Sometimes you'd like to have someone a very special one
And when you finally see how good your life can be Just don't give up faith and make yourself a better day

'Cause when you think the world's had
You gotta be strong and brave
You gotta stop the world and find yourself again

You gotta stop right now stop right now
Baby stop somehow' cause you're breaking down
Gotta stop right now stop right now
Baby stop somehow stop right now

Gotta stop right now stop right now
Baby stop somehow stop right now...
