

El Matinero

London Boys

Hey you! Do the matinero!
I said a
Hey you! Do the matinero!
The matinero is the kind
When a woman loves her baby
Like a runner in the night
She was dancin' girl like crazy
She says: Love is the answer to it all
Over and over
Hey you! Do the matinero!
I said a
Hey you! Do the matinero!

You gotta move it in the night
Grab your feet and be no squaro
Dancin' in the morning light
'Til the chicks say: Buona sera
Baby, love is the answer to it all
Over and over
Do the matinero!

Just when you feel those rain clouds inside your head
Another dream, a love you never had
Another day, another night so cold
Just turn around before you're getting
Older and older
Hey you! Do the matinero!
I said a hey you! Do the matinero!

The matinero is the dance
That will take your body under
If you want it here's the chance
Hear the drum beat roll like thunder
Baby, love is the answer to it all
Over and over
Do the matinero!

Just when you feel those rain clouds inside your head
Another dream, a love you never had
Another day, another night so cold
Just turn around before you're getting
Older and older
Hey you! Do the matinero!

Hey you! Do the matinero!
A said a
Hey you! Do the matinero!
