Shyer

London Grammar

I'm feeling shyer and the world gets darker Hold yourself a little higher Bridge that gap just further And all your being I'd ask you to give it up Oh ancient feeling love So beautifully dressed up

Feeling shyer, I'm feeling shyer I'm feeling shyer

Maybe you should call her Deep in the night for her And all your being I'd ask you to give it up I'd ask you to give it up
