

I've never had a moment anybody waits in line
But I'd kill for this feeling yet again
Seen you drenched in rubber
Pushing out your clothes so frightening
You made for the day you're getting out

Far and I'm in love again
Far cause I'm going to wear it out
Far and I'm in love again
Far cause I know no-ones going to show you how
But I found out

I never thought to question leather in a wholesome way
But it's growing in your brain now put it away
Dressed you in cardboard box to suit the time of day
But I never get the chance to wear it out

Far and I'm in love again
Far cause I'm going to wear it out
Far and I'm in love again
Far cause I know no-ones going to show you how
But I found out

No ones going to tell you why
But I've got mine she's gonna hold me on Completely disgraceful, your crying is watering something

Far and I'm in love again
Far cause I'm going to wear it out
Far and I'm in love again
Far cause I know no-ones going to show you how, but I found out
