

The Real Chuckeeboo

Loose Ends

Tomorrow is Just Another Day

Father says that Mrs. Thomas has a dirty mind
Ask him how he knows
Mother says that we are living on the borderline
Can't afford new clothes
Preacher says that everybodys got to change their ways (change their ways)
Judgments on it's way
Give a dollar maybe then your sins will go away
As we kneel to pray

(We can here them say)
Tomorrow is just another day
Tomorrow, gonna be... gonna be...
Tomorrow is just another day
Tomorrow (just another day...)

Father gambled with our money on a horse today
But the sure thing got away
Mother cries and tries another game of hide and seek
But this time she can't hide
Preacher says that everybodys got to change their ways (change their ways)
Judgments on it's way
Give a dollar maybe then your sins will go away
As we kneel to pray

(We can here them say)
Tomorrow, is just another day
Tomorrow, gonna be... gonna be...
Tomorrow, is just another day
Tomorrow (just another day...)

Just another day

(We can here them say)
Tomorrow is just another day
Tomorrow, gonna be... gonna be...
Tomorrow, is just another day
Tomorrow

Mr. Bachelor

Trust was the key
You said you'd love me eternally
But now you've confessed
And you hope I forgive and bless
So kiss me my dear
I'm the one that you oh should fear
Don't leave it to faith

Mr. Bachelor
You should have told me
Mr. Bachelor
You know you owe me

Mr. Bachelor
You should have told me

Mr. Bachelor
You know you owe me

You've Just Got to Have It All
You said you were single
See now that you lied to me
So how is your wife?
Is she enjoying your single life?

Mr. Bachelor
You should have told me

Mr. Bachelor
You know you owe me

Mr. Bachelor
You should have told me
Mr. Bachelor

You know you owe me
You owe me, you owe me, you owe me...
You owe me, you owe me, you owe me...
You owe me, you owe me, you owe me...

Last night you told me
You couldn't choose between the two of us
I know you owe me much more
Now it's time to close the door
Well I gave you all I had
And the time of looking back

Well excuse me cause a fools got to learn
I know how you spend your time
And here's where I draw the line
I still love you
But I must say goodbye

I just gotta have it all, have it all, have it all
Just gotta have it all, have it all, have it all
Just got have it all, have it all, have it all

It's too late now
I made my decision
To break away from all this misery
I'll take one day at a time
Til' I get with my mate
So why can't you see?

I just gotta have it all, have it all, have it all
Just gotta have it all, have it all, have it all
Just got have it all, have it all, have it all

Just gotta have it all, have it all, have it all
Just gotta have it all, have it all, have it all
Just got have it all, have it all, have it all
I won't settle for less
I won't settle for less
