

Prolusio: Acies Sigillum

Lord Belial

"In the beginning there was serenity then came the unrelenting scourge of war Hatred releasing it's flames upon humanity: lusting for blood of their fellow man Primal beasts born through shells of meekness returning the earth to what it once was

In the beginning there was darkness then came the light which we defy
All who lives by the faith of the light... who believes that they are righteous, without sin Shall soon feel the wrath of the rising darkness and taste it's fury as it covers the dying sun

If there is peace
- Hate shall engulf it all!!!

If there is light
-There will come greater darkness"
