Mighty

Lord Huron

You were a wild thing when you were younger, stomping through the jungle.

You were mighty and you were stronger but I bow no longer.

All your temples will lie in ruin once I ravage through them.

All your rivals will not go near you but I do not fear you.

Well, you howl and you roar, but I am not afraid of you anymore. (x4)

You think you can have it? Then come and get it.
