

Preludium: About Love, Death & The Devil

Lord Of The Lost

I have reached the bottom
I cant see the sky
I am down so low
Wanna be so high

I am running down
On a dead end road
in my search for love
I've reached the overload

I'm not strong enough to live
I'm not brave enough to die
I dont dare to cut my wrist
I turn away and clench my fist
And sign the contract with the Lord of Lies

When the rain has dried
In the tragedy
I live the faustian lie
To pretend I'm free
