

Sooner Or Later

Lord Of The Lost

Sooner or later i'll be a traitor
Sooner or later i will betray
But evil betrayer sooner or later
Is learning that love is finding a way

Sooner or later i'll be a hater
Sooner or later i'm killing again
But all of my failures sooner or later
Will be the remorse of dying in vain

The car is cracking into
Two hearts, one for me, one for you
But even with a broken heart
I still believe in love

The fall is breasting the depth
The anguish is making me creeps
But even with a opened scar
I still believe in love

Sooner or later i will be greater
Than all of the fears in all cold broken hearts
I hear the hater and soon or later
I'm closing the scars

And i believe in love
Belive in love
Belive in love...
