EviLove

I gave you deep red roses The thorns cut your hands We are an owl and a mouse's doomed romance

Now I would like to fondle But my nails rip your skin My most tender kiss stings your lips like pins

Your cries, they make no difference I'll always love you the same Now I'll try to restrain myself 'Cause my affection means pain

[Chorus:] Honey, honey Lemme hug you like a spider Honey, honey Lemme give you evilove Honey, honey Lemme kiss you like a viper Open up your heart Receive my evilove

Our night in Paris with candles Ended up in flames And cupid's arrow mangled your pretty face I wanna be your dream-date Who takes away your breath But I'm the man of your nightmares The gentleman death

Your cries, they make no difference I'll always love you the same Now I'll try to restrain myself 'Cause my affection means pain

[Chorus 3x]

Receive my evilove [3x]
