Supermonstars (The Anthem Of The Phantoms)

You've been pushed around Until you mumble Beaten to the ground But you won't crumble

They strike you dumb They bring you down They keep you on the losing end

They tell your right is wrong Your high is low So give 'em hell

Kick up a row We're the Supermonstars We chant the anthem of the Phantoms Deal out the blows Like a Supermonstar We are humble to none

They can't make you out That makes you bogus They think they know What we're about But they just don't know us

They strike you dumb They bring you down They keep you on the losing end

They tell your right is wrong Your high is low So give 'em hell

Kick up a row We're the Supermonstars We chant the anthem of the Phantoms Deal out the blows Like a Supermonstar We are humble to none

Kick up a row We're the Supermonstars We chant the anthem of the Phantoms Deal out the blows Like a Supermonstar We are humble to none

Kick up a row We're the Supermonstars We chant the anthem of the Phantoms Deal out the blows Like a Supermonstar We are humble to none
