

Don't Kill For Love

Lords of Acid

I was staring through the jailbars
Over the open prairie sky
Bob, the deputy was singing
I thought i heard coyotes cry
I was thinking 'bout my mama
The meanest whore in texas town

Yes she sold me to Tex Shorty
The horny dwarf with the soring eye
But i was dreaming of Clint Eastwood
A handsome man, magnum 45
I was in love with my lone ranger
So i had to kill his wife

Don't kill for love
God is watching from above
The devil's gonna send him straight to hell
Don't kill for love
God is watching from above
Life ain't always easy, i can tell

Life ain't easy i can tell (x4)

Don't kill for love
God is watching from above
The devil's gonna send you straight to hell
Don't kill for love
God is watching from above
Life ain't always easy, i can tell
