State by state
It's tough, so full of risk

Creatures from the other side
Hell yeah, they're extreme
They are fearless, they are mean

Taunting spirits in the night

On a mission with my team
I admit it frightens me
Being watched by the deceased

Every hunt is quite unique
Electromagnetic fields, paranormal energy
Being taunted by a ghoul
That's what's frightening me the most
Haunted spirits from the shadow world
Getting physically attacked
Bloody scratches on my back
Getting followed constantly
By evil ghosts we cannot see
Knowing there are entities
