

Who Do You Think You Are?

Lords of Acid

Take a walk

I don't want no lip or your badass trip
No use to pick a fight, you know I'm always right
I don't want no lies and no alibies
Shut your face you're too small, don't owe you anything at all

Don't like your filthy talk or the bounce in your walk
I couldn't care less, boy you think that you're the best
In our bed at night, can't even do things right
Oh you're just no good, don't do what a real man should

Baby who do you think you are
Driving around in your big fat car
With your macho look and your stupid talk
Get outta here, go take a walk

You behave like a beast to say the least
You're so full of yourself, you don't think of no one else
No I won't behave like your little slave
Baby think again, huh, you are not a man

You always stink of booze and give me the blues
You're a lousy lay, you prove it every day
Come on and get your shit cus I'm sick of it
You with your stupid head, why don't you drop dead

Baby who do you think you are
Driving around in your big fat car
With your macho look and your stupid talk
Get outta here, piss off and take a walk
