

Another Bridge to Burn

Loretta Lynn

I don't suppose I'll ever love him quite the way that I love you
But when he slips into my dreams, I don't wake up feelin' blue
When we don't have in common we make up for in concern
I just found another match, you're another bride it's time to burn

Through the years I've cried a river
One teardrop at a time
I kept that old bridge standin' strong
Just in case you changed your mind
I can't live on dreams forever
At least reality returns
With his hand in mine we'll lock the flame
You're another bridge it's time to burn

Oh I never will forget you or a single memory
But he's here now and you're gone and you make such lonely memories
I don't know how to touch him right but I know I want to learn
I just found another match, you're another bridge it's time to burn

Through the years I've cried a river
One teardrop at a time
I kept that old bridge standin' strong
Just in case you changed your mind
I can't live on dreams forever
At least reality returns
With his hand in mine we'll lock the flame
You're another bridge it's time to burn
