

Cheatin' on a Cheater

Loretta Lynn

How long did you think that you could get by and not give yourself away
Cause all of the stories you were tellin' me got weaker baby day by day
I was a fool for a long long time but I finally got wise to you
You've been a havin' some good times baby now I'm gonna have some too

Cause cheatin' on a cheater don't feel like cheatin' and I'm provin' it again tonight
Lysin' on a liar don't feel like lysin' when somebody ain't treatin' you right
Cause lovin' on a lover who's a lovin' on another don't feel like a good love should
And cheatin' on a cheater don't feel like cheatin' or I wouldn't be feelin' this good

You were the first to step over the line and now I'm a steppin' out too
Cause I'm not wastin' anymore time I've got some catchin' up to do
I've had a taste of some good love and now I know just where it's at
So don't come a talkin' that sweet talk baby you know what you can do with that

Cause cheatin' on a cheater don't feel like cheatin' and I'm provin' it again tonight
Lysin' on a liar don't feel like lysin' when somebody ain't treatin' you right
Cause lovin' on a lover who's a lovin' on another don't feel like a good love should
And cheatin' on a cheater don't feel like cheatin' or I wouldn't be feelin' this good
Cheatin' on a cheater don't feel like cheatin' or I wouldn't be feelin' this good
