

Close My Eyes

Loretta Lynn

I know he knows I'm dead so why don't he close my eyes
For as long as they stay open I can see where my heart lies
It's burried at his beat and when he steps on it it cries
Everybody knows I'm dead so why don't they close my eyes
My blue eyes are open wide and I can see her take my place
I numb still I can feel the dirt he's throwin' in my face
He was every breath I breathe so how could I survive
Everybody knows I'm bad so why don't they close my eyes

My blue eyes are open wide...
