

Cracker Jack Jewelry

Loretta Lynn

I guess we're just two of the unfortunate few
Who look like that they've got it made
Sure we've got all those things fine cars and big rings
But it ain't worth the price that we've paid

Why don't we go back to Cracker Jack Jewelry
When all you could give me was all of your time
And all of our nights were brighter than diamonds
And our love still sparkled and shined

It's not too late to admit that we hate
The fact we don't love anymore
Let's turn it around get our feet on the ground
And off of this plush carpet floor

Why don't we go back to Cracker Jack Jewelry
When all you could give me was all of your time
And all of our nights were brighter than diamonds
And our love still sparkled and shined
Why don't we go back to Cracker Jack Jewelry
