

I'm Losing My Mind

Loretta Lynn

Doctor how could live with this broken heart
But my pride won't forgive my mistake
I see him and my heart tells me oh what a fool
I'm losin' my mind for my baby's sake

I'm losin' my mind because I love him so
And it's so hard to love a man then let him go
And doctor he'll need somethin' to ease his pain
When he finds out the reason why I've gone insane

Guilt is my sickness and I wear it well
Cause my baby don't know what I've done
Feared that he'll leave me when he learns the truth
The truth about the father of his son

I'm losin' my mind because I love him so
And it's so hard to love a man then let him go
And doctor he'll need somethin' to ease his pain
When he finds out the reason why I've gone insane
