I Need Someone To Hold Me (When I Cry)

Loretta Lynn

He packed his few belongings left a note and now he's gone It's hard for me to know he's left me here so all alone As soon as he's gone for enough and I know he's out of sight Oh I'll go all to pieces and I'll cry Yes I need someone to hold me when I cry Someone who really understand the way I feel inside When my heart breaks the tears won't stop no matter how I try And I need someone to hold me when I cry

I don't know why he left me or what his leavin's for I guess he didn't need me or love me anymore He drove me into a world as dark and cold as ice With no one here to hold me when I cry Yes I need someone to hold me....
