

It Just Looks That Way

Loretta Lynn

No I'm not crying it just looks that way

He thinks his leaving me will drive me mad Silly boy he's the smallest hurt I've had These ain't tears I'm standing in it rains today
No I'm not crying it just looks that way

No I'm not crying it just looks that way
I've convinced my heart I'm happy and it believes everything I say
He thinks he left me lonesome and hurtin' every day
Oh but I'm not crying it just looks that way

No I'm not crying...
Oh but I'm not crying it just looks that way
