

Man I Hardly Know

Loretta Lynn

In a booth back in a corner where the lights are way down low
In the arms of a man I hardly know

I let the devil take over this heart of mine
When I lost your love well I almost lost my mind
I never thought I'd ever fall this low but here I am with a man
I hardly know
In a booth back in a corner...

I do the things a proper lady wouldn't do
And it all started that first night when I lost you
To see me now you wouldn't know me I'm changed so
Cause here I am with a man I hardly know
In a booth back in a corner...
