

Too Wild to Be Tamed

Loretta Lynn

The river flows on and there's dark before dawn
And the wild blood flows through my veins
With a ghost of a life I just can't be a wife
I'm wild I'm too wild to be tamed

The wind is my kin and death is my end
And for restlessness there is no cure
My life's so unreal I just can't stand still
I'm wild I'm too wild to be tamed

An eagle flies high with wings in the wind
With blood so wild no man he'll befriend
I'm a girl without name and I'll never be chained
I'm wild I'm too wild to be tamed

The wind is my kin and death is my end
And for restlessness there is no cure
My life's so unreal I just can't stand still
I'm wild I'm too wild to be tamed
Yes I'm wild I'm too wild to be tamed
