Lori Carson

I should have had faith
I should have taken a chance
Should have been myself
I should have laughed

I should have risked something I should have kissed you I should have told you I should have let you know

Instead I fell and fell and fell
Into the loneliness
I fell and fell and fell
Into the loneliness
I know so well

I could hear your laughter
I could see your breath
I could taste the winter
I could feel my heart race

Do you think that we could fall And fall into each others arms Just fall and fall and fall Into each others arms Who would it harm?

There were all these voices in my head They said he won't so don't even try Then listed all the reasons why

Snow was on the ground You were in my reach Walking there beside me I should have turned and smiled

Instead I fell and fell and fell
Into the loneliness
I fell and fell and fell
Into the loneliness
I fell and fell and fell and fell
And fell and fell and fell and fell

I should have had faith
I should have taken a chance
Should have been myself
I should have laughed

Instead I fell and fell and fell
Into the loneliness
I fell and fell and fell
Into the loneliness
I fell and fell and fell and fell
And fell and fell and fell and fell
