Lori McKenna

Pour

In the depths of the deep blue sea There's a blue as blue as me Where a quiet symphony Plays for the lonely

I could just let it all go Sink down to the world below Where I don't breathe but I don't know 'Cause I'm breathless

When it's love It will rain sometimes When it's love, it will pour Pour

I don't know where my lover went But I know that he took the rent And I know that he went And spent all my loving

And I'm not rich but I don't care I'll find that boy anywhere I'll walk the land, fly the air And tread water

When it's love It will rain sometimes When it's love, it will pour Pour

If the moon could sing a song With the symphony in the blue beyond They'd tell me He was really gone forever

When it's love It will rain sometimes When it's love, it will pour

When it's love It will rain sometimes When it's love, it will pour Pour, pour, pour

It will pour It will pour It will pour